

Accommodation at Blakelands

In addition to the Principal House Bedrooms, Blakelands has a further twelve en-suite rooms, all are individually themed and decorated. Rooms will, as a courtesy, be reserved for you until we see you eight weeks prior to your reception, when confirmation will be required. Rooms not required by the wedding party at this point will be released for general booking.

The Corbett Bridal Suite

named after Edward & Mary Corbett.

It was Edward Corbett, who in 1722 added the north wing including this suite, for his new bride Mary. The Bridal Suite features an 18th Century Hepplewhite Design Four Poster Bed, a lounge area, dressing room and splendid "Art Nouveau" bathroom with separate shower cubicle and large bath.

Also in Blakelands House, The Oak Room, features Oak panelled walls & four poster bed, while the Cottage Room exhibits original features & fantastic countryside views. These three principal rooms including your choice of breakfast are included in your Wedding Package.

Breakfasts are served from 8.30am till 9.30am in the Lodge Restaurant.
